Special Town Council Meeting

March 19, 2020

Meeting called to order by Mayor Cain at 7:00P.M.

Leah Higginbotham, Terry Parsons, Doug Pierson, and Chad Thaxton were present.

Mayor Cain informed Council and the Area Church Community Church Leaders, the Town of Buffalo's plan of action for the COVID-19 event and other health related epidemic, is to be in contact with the Putnam County Commission via Mayor, Police Chief, Chief Fire Department, and follow their policy and recommendations.

The Church Leaders expressed their concern on how to help seek out people in need within the community/ area, and how to go about helping them. They were asking for ways to coordinate with the Town to form an informal "Disaster Relief Program".

Senator Jefferies mentioned that the WV National Guard has stated they would be available for various types of services.

Mayor Cain mentioned that we will try to obtain some resources of information to give out to the public for those in need of help, but also attempt to develop a phone number database of volunteers that could reach out to people to get them help.

Meeting adjourned at 8:23 P.M.

Attendance: Senator Glenn Jefferies, Chief Will Jordan (Police), Chief Amos Whittington (Fire), Area Church Representatives
